

Bruges is the capital and largest city of the province of West Flanders is located in the northwest of the country.

The historic city centre is a prominent World Heritage Site of UNESCO. It is egg-shaped and about 430 hectares in size. Along with a few other canal-based northern cities, it is sometimes referred to as "The Venice of the Nord"

Oostduinkerke is a popular seaside resort in the Belgian province of West-Flanders. The name Oostduinkerke can be translated as 'Church of the Eastern Dunes'.

Oostduinkerke lies amidst a dune area (approximately 2,40 km²), which is now a protected nature reserve.

To go for walks in the nature reserves (7,01 km²) or on the beach (8 km) or on the promenade (3,6 km) is a refreshing experience.

The sandy beach stretches from 250 to 700 m at ebb-tide.

Oostduinkerke is known for its shrimpers on horseback, a considerable tourist attraction. It is the only place in the world where you can see such shrimpers.

Fishery folklore is still very much alive.
